God's Garden

(Genesis 1–2)

In the beginning there was nothing but God.
“Let there be light,” he said, and just like that, there was light. God made the blue sky, the green grass, twinkling stars, and a shining sun. He made chirping birds, wiggly fish, and furry animals, too. Then God made a man named Adam and a woman named Eve. God planted a garden and put the man and woman in it. God’s garden was their home. And God said, “This is very good!”
