DIANA JENKINS

“Tackling Tough Topics with Faith and Fiction is full of help and hope for our Catholic youth and the adults who minister among them! Confronted daily with pressures, stresses, temptations, and media influences of a secularized culture, young people today want to know how to live their faith. This practical book provides adult leaders a step-by-step guide to introduce sensitive subjects and helps youth learn to follow Christ in the midst of the tough situations of their everyday lives. The Church needs resources of just this sort.”

— Archbishop Wilton D. Gregory, SLD, Archbishop of Atlanta

“In a field rich with solid catechetical resources, I was never tempted to use the word ‘genius’—until now. Tackling Tough Topics with Faith and Fiction by Diana Jenkins is extraordinary in its power and simplicity. With exceptional insight and a remarkably creative approach to sensitive subjects (for a hypersensitive audience), Jenkins’s short, fictional, first-person stories expose and illuminate tough, timely issues without offending or threatening the dignity of the teen or young adult reader. Accompanying discussion questions, facts, activities, Scripture, and other resources are unified, coherent, and profoundly satisfying. Give us more resources like this one. Bravo!”
