DAVID BRANSON

An Introduction to Health and Safety Law

An Introduction to Health and Safety Law provides a clear, concise overview of health and safety law in the United Kingdom. With reference to the European Union, this book discusses criminal and civil liability at length to provide a clear understanding of this area of law, which has been subject to change over the last 20 years.

Key case studies and statistical information on prosecutions, fines and enforcement notices help to contextualise health and safety law to provide students and professionals with a full understanding of health and safety law in the UK.

This book includes chapters on:

- the legal framework
- criminal liability
- enforcement of criminal liability
- civil liability
- civil remedy
- subordinate legislation.

This book is an essential reference for students studying towards NEBOSH qualifications and students studying at university level. It provides a comprehensive understanding of UK health and safety law and will be a useful reference when entering the professional field.

David Branson, LLB (University of London, UK), Barrister (Middle Temple, UK), Master in Jurisprudence (University of Durham, UK), has a post-graduate diploma in occupational health and safety (Aston University, UK). He is Course Coordinator for the health and safety courses at Middlesbrough College, UK, delivering on the NEBOSH certificate and diploma courses. He has written a number of articles on health and safety law, published in Safety and Health Practitioner and the New Law Journal.

Acknowledgements

I would like to thank various people for their help to me in writing this book. First my wife, who has been very supportive during the whole enterprise and has always been there to provide encouragement. Second I would like to thank my sister-in-law Margaret Joy, for all her work in proof reading, a task which is so important and yet often not properly appreciated.

In addition, I would like to thank all the staff at Middlesbrough College who have given me support, including Carol Stephenson, my fellow law lecturer, who advised me on the area of legal practice; and also the library staff who were so patient in waiting for me to return the books I had borrowed. I am also grateful for the support of the staff at Evershed's, whose law update sessions I found so enjoyable and informative. Finally, I would like to thank all the students I have taught over the past 18 years on various NEBOSH courses, whose enthusiasm and interest in the subject have been a great encouragement to me. I hope they find this book both informative and enlightening.
